XION® PPE
A RAMPART BRAND

AVAILABLE EXCLUSIVELY AT RAMPART, XION Protective Gear is designed for the PPE market. The CRC Collection (Crowd Riot Control) can be worn comfortably underneath any uniform. The base layer protects against blunt trauma impact using ground breaking impact protection technology from D3O®. Built with law enforcement in mind, its low-profile design & unmatched technology is a perfect solution for the challenges facing modern policing.

CRC PANT

DISCRETE RIOT GEAR

The CRC collection's ability to fit underneath the uniform results in officers having a low-profile silhouette. This gives end users full blunt impact protection while creating a less aggressive presentation in crowd control situations.

COMFORTABLE AND MOBILE

Xion's PPE line is made of perforated 4-way stretch material which allows the end user their full freedom of movement and manoueverability. The breathable, sweat wicking material can easily be worn for long periods of time without getting uncomfortable or irritated.

PROTECTED BY D3O

Xion's products are protected by D3O's ground-breaking impact technology. D3O's patented technology has a unique molecular structure, allowing it to remain soft and flexible. That changes on impact as D3O's molecules lock together, absorbing the impact energy and dissipating it. This reduces the impact of the force transmitted and results in less damaging injuries to the protected areas – if any at all.
